COMFORTABLE FISHABILITY

Grady-White Canyon 271 FS CC

The new Canyon 271 FS from Grady-White Boats increases comfort and versatility in a proven design with the addition of port and starboard bow seating atop insulated, overboard-draining, 85-quart fish boxes. This cushioned bow seating features forward-facing, adjustable backrests that fold away to open the bow for fishing space, along with a casting platform insert to enhance the fishability.

The wide gunwales, recessed low-profile bow rails, lockable horizontal rod storage, and deluxe lean bar with four rod holders, a rigging station, tackle drawers and 42-gallon insulated raw-water livewell provide essential conveniences for fishermen who love the capability and exceptional ride of Grady-White's exclusive SeaV² hull design, which makes for safe, reliable and productive long offshore runs.
